

Pathways to Employment - Accredited course

Learner Reps

Day:  Time:  1 to 3  at Strand House

Qualification level and title: Entry 2 Award in Life and Living skills

Who is this course for?

This course is for learners who would like to become an ambassador for CALAT, a better citizen in the community and an advocate for CALAT learners.

What will I learn?

You will learn how to:

- Communicate clearly and effectively in different situations
- Work as part of a team
- Deal with straightforward and difficult problems
- Accept responsibility for your own behaviour
- Make the most of your leisure time and promote the benefits of leisure activities to other learners
- Be a good friend
- Identify how to manage your emotions and to support other learners to manage their emotions
- Recognise bullying behaviour and take appropriate action
- Develop good interpersonal skills

Pathways to Employment - Accredited course

- Respect other people
- Contribute positively to the local community

How will this course benefit me?

You will:

- Develop your leadership skills
- Improve your problem-solving skills
- Enhance your english skills
- Develop your independence
- Improve your communication skills
- Boost your self knowledge, self-esteem and self confidence

Entry Requirements

To be considered for this course you must be able to:

- Work at Entry 2 level in English
- Be a good role model
- Attend classes every week
- Be friendly and patient
- Be a good listener
- Show commitment and good behaviour

You must bring these every week

Folder

Pen

Commitment

ASSESSMENT METHOD FOR ACCREDITED COURSES

This course will be assessed by the completion of a portfolio of evidence